

Potential 2022 Timeline

Spring 2022

Matteo Stettler (Doctoral Student Deakin University), Thoreau and Philosophy as a Way of Life.

Spring/Summer

Tommy Curry (University of Edinburg), American Philosophy and Black Male Studies

Fall:

Roberto Frega (French National Center for Scientific Research): Pragmatism and Work-Place Democracies

Winter

Leonard Waks (Emeritus Temple University), American Philosophy of Education

Preliminary Potential Guest Speakers List (by Location):

(U.S.)

- Randall Auxier (Southern Illinois University Carbondale): Introduction to American Process Philosophy (Lectures: Charles Sanders Peirce and Josiah Royce, William James and John Dewey, Alfred North Whitehead and Suzanne Langer)
- Richard Shusterman (Florida Atlantic University): American Philosophy, Aesthetics, PWL, and Ars Erotica
- Kenneth Stickers (Southern Illinois University Carbondale): Pragmatism and Africana Philosophy
- Carl Sachs (Marymount University): Pragmatism, Cybernetics, and Wilfred Sellars
- Laura Mueller (West Texas A&M University): American Philosophy and Idealism
- Paul Cherlin (Minneapolis College The College of St. Benedict/St. John's University): Pragmatic Metaphysics
- Myron Jackson (Western Carolina University): American Philosophy and Cultural-Political Pluralism
- Erin Mckenna (University of Oregon): Pragmatism, Feminism, and Ecology.

(Poland)

- Wojciech Malecki (University of Wrocław): The Relevance of Rorty today

- Marcin Kilanowski (Nicolaus Copernicus University in Torun): Pragmatism and Critical Theory
- Krzysztof Piotr Skowroński (Opole University): Stoic Pragmatism

(Greater Europe)

- Adrienne Dengerink Chaplin (Kings College- London): The Relevancy of Suzanne Langer Today
- Roberto Frega (French National Center for Scientific Research): Pragmatism and Work-Place Democracies
- Justo Serrano Zammora (University of Groningen): Pragmatism and Social Movements
- Claudio Paolucci (University of Bologna): Pierce and Semiotics
- Giuseppe Spadafora (University of Calabria): Dewey and a new global networked society
- Maura Striano (University of Naples), Dewey and Inclusive Education
- Tommy Curry (University of Edinburg, American Philosophy and Black Male Studies)
- Leonard Waks (Hanzou Normal University [Lives in Lisbon]: Dewey and Higher Education